MAY EXTEND TO DENVER.

Grain Country.

St. Paul, Nov. 13 .- The Chicago Great Western will open an office .a

Denver. This action is said to be the forerunner of the company's extension into Colorado.

That the Stickney line will be extended to Denver now seems certain, and although officials of the company deny that the road is to be built west of Omaha railroad men all over the country believe that the extension will be made within a year or two.

When President Fish of the Illinois Central remarked in a recent visit to Denver that President Stickney should have built his road west of Omaha to carry out his purpose of making the latter a grain center, it is thought he spoke without having any knowledge of the intentions of the executive officials of the Great West-
